A trustworthy friend

Actions that build trust over time, in person and online.

What does someone do, again and again, that makes them a trustworthy friend?

You can always pass, write your answer privately, or use a made-up example.

Colossians 3:12–13

“Clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone.”

Colossians 3:12–13, New International Version (NIV)

CHRISTIAN CONNECTION

Trust is built by small actions repeated over time: kindness, patience and keeping your word. That shows in how we treat friends here and in every group chat.

WATCH FOR

- Each person is an image-bearer
- Respect is owed, not earned
- What that means for how we treat friends online

Which actions build trust?

In groups, sort the six cards below: BUILDS TRUST or NEEDS EDITING.

Then agree on the four trust actions this class will keep.

1 You keep a confidence

2 A real friend tells you everything

3 Concerns go to a trusted adult

4 A true friend keeps every secret, always

5 You own it when you slip up

6 You keep your word

Cards 5 and 6 are the ones that need editing — rewrite them together, then keep your final four.

“One action I can take this week to be a more trustworthy friend is ...”

Write this one privately — you don't have to share it.

TAKEAWAY

Trust is not declared, it is built by small actions repeated over time.
