Home responsibilities

Setting up one job at home with a cue, an action and a check.

Which jobs at home only happen when somebody remembers to remind you?

You can always pass, write your answer privately, or use a made-up example.

Colossians 3:23

“Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters.”

Colossians 3:23, New International Version (NIV)

CHRISTIAN CONNECTION

Ordinary home jobs are worth doing well, even when nobody is watching and nobody says thank you. Working wholeheartedly is not about being praised — it is about being trustworthy in small, repeated things.

Which of these home jobs are ready to use?

In groups, sort the six cards into READY TO USE or NEEDS EDITING.

For any card you would edit, rewrite it so it names a cue, an action and a check.

1

Before bed on Thursday, put the washing basket by the machine and tell an adult.

3

After dinner on Monday, wheel the bin to the kerb and check the lid is closed.

5

When I put my bag down after school, rinse my lunchbox and stand it on the rack.

2

When homework is finished, pack tomorrow's bag and check it against the timetable.

4

Make sure nobody in the family ever runs out of clean uniform again.

6

Nadia keeps the whole house tidy every single day.

Ask of every card: does it name a cue, an action and a check — and where does the job stop?

“When ...I will ...so that ...”

Write this one privately — you don’t have to share it.

TAKEAWAY

A job you can keep has a cue, one clear action and a way to check.
