Strengths are gifts

Naming two real strengths and one way each can serve others.

#identity

#wisdom

#faithfulness

#service

What counts as a strength if nobody gives out an award for it?

You can always pass, write your answer privately, or use a made-up example.

Romans 12:4–8

“We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us. If your gift is prophesying, then prophecy in accordance with your faith; if it is serving, then serve; if it is teaching, then teach; if it is to encourage, then give encouragement.”

Romans 12:4–8, New International Version (NIV)

CHRISTIAN CONNECTION

Every person has equal dignity and a different capacity. Gifts are received, not earned, and they grow up when they are used for someone else.

Strength-to-service match

T1 · STRENGTHS ARE GIFTS · WEEK 2

What can we actually see Morgan do?

Sort the cards into evidence we can see and guesses we cannot.

1 Checked the bench was packed away

3 Morgan hasn't got a thing

5 Morgan is just a nice person

Pick a precise strength word, then write a 10-second service move.

2 Located the equipment tray for the new student

4 Explained the first step of the instructions

6 Morgan is the best in the class

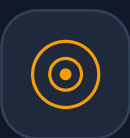

Test each card: could a camera have recorded it?

 REFLECT

“This week this strength could serve ...”

Write this one privately — you don't have to share it.

TAKEAWAY

A gift is measured by who it serves, not by who applauds.
