YEAR 6

The Shalom compass

Four relationship directions that describe what helps people and places thrive.

#helpseeking

#respectfulrelationships

#creationcare

#service

A group leaves one member out and wastes the materials. Which relationships does that damage?

You can always pass, write your answer privately, or use a made-up example.

Mark 12:30–31

“Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’ The second is this: ‘Love your neighbour as yourself.’ There is no commandment greater than these.”

Mark 12:30–31, New International Version (NIV)

CHRISTIAN CONNECTION

Shalom is more than a calm feeling — it is right, truthful and life-giving relationship with God, others, ourselves and creation. Because these directions are connected, one restoring action can strengthen several at once.

REFLECT

Which actions would truly restore shalom in this group?

Map one fact from the case beside each compass direction.

Sort the six cards, then design one restoring action that names who does what next.

1

Give Lee the tidying-up job while the others finish

2

Pause the poster and ask Lee which role Lee would like

3

Move on quickly and hope Lee forgets about it

4

Tidy the scraps and close the glue lids together

5

Add the native-plant idea and name whose idea it was

6

Say "We all contributed" so the group looks good

Test each card: does it tell the truth? Restore participation? Care for materials?

“Shalom is strengthened when ...because it repairs the relationship with ...”

Write this one privately — you don't have to share it.

TAKEAWAY

One honest restoring action can strengthen several relationships at once.
