Welcome across difference

Using curiosity and one small inclusive action to welcome people unlike us.

What can make someone feel like a guest in a room they belong in?

You can always pass, write your answer privately, or use a made-up example.

Leviticus 19:34

“The foreigner residing among you must be treated as your native-born. Love them as yourself, for you were foreigners in Egypt.”

Leviticus 19:34, New International Version (NIV)

CHRISTIAN CONNECTION

Every person shares the same God-given dignity, whatever their language, culture or ability. Welcome is not a favour we hand out — it is how we treat someone already made in God’s image.

Which of these welcome moves are ready to use?

In groups, sort the six cards into READY TO USE or NEEDS EDITING.

For any card you would edit, rewrite it so it names a cue, an action and a check.

1 Make sure nobody in this school ever feels lonely or different again.

3 Welcome anyone new at the door and show them the page we are on.

5 In group work, ask one curious question about something the person enjoys.

2 When we choose lunchtime seats, ask the new student to sit with us that day.

4 Tomas can join us once he speaks English like everyone else does.

6 When a class chat is made, add everyone in the group before plans are shared.

Ask of every card: is it respectful, doable, welcoming — and does it spotlight anyone?

“When ...I will ...so that ...”

Write this one privately — you don't have to share it.

TAKEAWAY

The best welcome is curious, respectful and small enough to keep.
